Kaua'i resident tests positive for COVID-19 while on O'ahu

LĪHU'E – The Kaua'i District Health Office today reports that a Kaua'i resident who is currently on O'ahu has tested positive for COVID-19. Health officials confirm that the resident has been on O'ahu for several weeks.

Due to the timing of illness, this individual poses no risk to Kaua'i residents and no Kaua'i close contacts have been identified.

This case is not considered an active case for Kaua'i but will be counted toward the island's cumulative total, bringing the total to 57.

There are currently no confirmed active cases of COVID-19 on Kaua'i.

For local updates, visit the Kaua'i Emergency Management Agency page at www.kauai.gov/COVID-19.
